Educational background

The course is applicable also for interests with non-academic background, but basic knowledge in architecture/engineering is strongly recommended.

Course Fees

The total course fee is 3.200 € (incl. VAT). This includes an application/registration fee of 100 € to process your application/registration and ensure your place to study. The application/registration fee is due after the confirmation of participation.

The complete course fee will be charged about 3 weeks before the start of the course. An appropriate invoice will be sent out accordingly. With the payment of the entire fee, the training contract is agreed*. All further documents/ information/ accesses will be provided not before the payment is completed.

* The Online Course 2022 IMS Bauhaus® Degree Archineer® in Membrane Structures will take place only if a minimum number of 10 participants is secured. Otherwise, the start of the course may be postponed for up to one year while retaining the enrolment for the next course term or it can also be cancelled. In this case the course fee of 3.100 € can be refunded. The payment of the application/registration fee of 100 € remains unaffected, even if the student does not continue the application under these circumstances.

Payments

The IMS BAUHAUS® Archineer® Institutes e.V. has no possibility to accept payments by credit cards. Payments can be made as bank transfers or via PayPal. All fees (third party and own) are at the expense of the client. Detailed information on this is included in the invoice. It is possible to pay the entire fees (3.200 €) all together.

Payments are made by: myself company sponsor
